1. Report of Ad Hoc Committee
on Communications*
(IAC-D-6/17.1, 2 April)

The members approved the Committee's report as amended, including recommendations that:

a. The DCI send the letter in Annex E to the Secretary of Defense for his guidance, expressing the intelligence community's requirements for the transmission of critical intelligence;

b. The draft DCID in Annex F, covering the definition, identification and handling of critical intelligence, be issued.

25X1A The members further agreed, with the USCIB representatives concurring, to the Acting Chairman's proposal that the Ad Hoc Committee be succeeded by a Standing Committee of the same components (i. e., IAC, NSA, Defense, and NIC representatives, under the chairmanship of [REDACTED] CIA) entitled the Committee on Critical Communications (CCC), to consider the intelligence and communications aspects of the critical intelligence reporting system and provide continuing guidance to the Executive Agent for Communications, and that this committee would be available for consultation by the Secretary of Defense and officers designated by him to cope with the intelligence communications problem. In addition, the members agreed that as initial assignments the CCC would maintain continuous cognizance of intelligence handling procedures and would draft messages instructing Defense, State, and CIA representatives at specified overseas locations to produce joint recommendations for the handling of critical intelligence communications originating at those locations.

2. Approval of Minutes
22 April Meeting
(IAC-M-338)

Approved as written.
